

I do not want the FCC to preempt Indiana's Telephone Privacy law to lower the national standard for telemarketing. I am enjoying not receiving calls in the evening after I get home from work and being able to spend quality time with my family and doing personal things without being bothered by telemarketers trying to sell me something I do not want or need. The FCC should now do something about preventing telemarketers from calling people at their work place and wasting valuable work time.